pizza oven with gas

rediscover the authentic flavour
of pizza

Awaken the pizzaiolo in you with the GINO536 pizza oven!
Running on propane or butane gas, this outdoor oven with its original design replicates the traditional cooking conditions of Italian pizzas.

Made of stainless steel with a removable door, it can reach a temperature of 450°C in less than 10 minutes.

You can control the temperature with its built-in thermometer and the control button on the back of the product.

The cordierite stone has a very quick absorption of the heat, making it perfect for cooking for various dishes such as pizzas, tarts, breads, quiches, etc.

Its 40 x 40 cm cooking surface allows you to cook pizzas of any size as you wish.

Use the shovel provided with the unit to handle your dishes without burning yourself.

Easy to install with its chimney and its removable feet, its maintenance is even easier thanks to its smooth walls.

Pizzas like in Italy with the GINO536 pizza oven!
