

iron steam station ceramic soleplate 5 bar

Experience ultra powerful ironing

The H.Koenig V24 iron steam station allows simple and efficient ironing thanks to its 5 bar steam pressure and ceramic base.

Ready for use in less than a minute, the V24 incorporates the new «unlimited autonomy» technology allowing for the tank to be filled while in use. The vertical creasing function makes possible the ironing of crease curtains and clothes directly on hangers. Its «Anti-calc collector» function recovers scale and guarantees a longer product life.

Choose the V24 iron steam station, for a powerful and fast ironing!
